

Roy and Buddy Unplugged

Featuring Reg Denver & Paul McCann

Reg Denver has always been an enthusiastic fan of the great Roy Orbison & following Roy's untimely death in 1988, Reg decided to present a stage Tribute to Roy Orbison. This requires very special talents, which Reg has in abundance. He has a vocal range of three octaves, which is an essential requirement for anyone planning an Orbison Tribute.

He sings like Orbison.

In fact, you could be excused for wondering if indeed, you were actually seeing and hearing Orbison.

Combined with Paul McCann - the greatest look-a-like and sound-a-like to Buddy Holly - performing on the club and corporate circuit today, this show is guaranteed to be a winner with audiences of all age groups.

The Buddy Holly favourites include Maybe Baby, Doesn't Matter Any More, Heartbeat, Rainin' In My Heart and Rave On!

Don't miss this dynamic duo in action!
