

W.P. Brennan

The biggest compliment and the nicest 'buzz' for W.P. BRENNAN was paid by an audience of five hundred people in the Las Vegas "Sahara Hotel" when he performed there in front of 'the audience that has seen it all'.

He won them over by being exactly who he wanted to be - himself.

However, W.P. BRENNAN is the perfect entertainer for American & International audiences; a smooth, sophisticated performer one minute singing contemporary 'hits' and a Rock'N Roller the next, re-creating songs of the 50's & 60's.

W.P. BRENNAN has appeared at all major Casinos, Conventions & Clubs throughout Australia as well as appearances in Singapore, Malaysia & Japan. His Australian peers voted him 'Best New Talent' earlier in his career and more recently has been nominated several times in the category of the 'Australian Variety Artists' "MO AWARDS" for 'Best Male Vocalist'.

Warren has built up a broad range of experience and successes in his career to date and not only as a singer. Bit parts in ABC Television drama's were followed by guest appearances on Channel Ten's "Number 96" series as well as numerous appearances on National Television Variety Shows. He also had the pleasure of working with Olivia Newton-John and Glen Campbell in his "Down Under Television Special".

W.P. Brennan

W.P. is originally from New Zealand but is happy to be called an Australian, having lived here half his life - but entertainment knows no geography and an entertainer like W.P. Brennan is an entertainer for everyone... wherever in the world they may be.
